PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Fire-Rise Solar
Social Media Manager

January 2026 – Present

Brought Fire-Rise Solar’s digital presence to life by curating value-driven content that educated and inspired homeowners and B2B clients on renewable energy; crafted strategic content calendars rooted in sustainability trends, edited scroll-stopping videos, and designed bold, on-brand visuals, transforming complex technical concepts into relatable posts that drove significant inbound inquiries for solar installations and smart home automation.

- Developed and executed digital content strategies across platforms tailored to residential and B2B audiences seeking solar, CCTV, and security solutions.
- Curated and repurposed educational content focused on energy efficiency and smart home integration to drive value and position the brand as a trusted industry authority.
- Designed on-brand graphics and edited video content optimized for each platform’s algorithm and user behavior.
- Increased engagement and lead generation by creating trend-aligned, informative, and relatable posts that bridged the gap between complex technology and everyday consumer needs.

4everLuxri
Brand Strategist

May 2025 - December 2025

Elevated 4everLuxri’s brand identity by defining a compelling visual aesthetic and voice that resonated with fashion-forward audiences; orchestrated seasonal collection campaigns, coordinated influencer partnerships, and crafted engaging narratives, transforming the clothing brand’s digital footprint and driving a substantial increase in brand affinity and user-generated content.

- Developed and executed comprehensive brand strategies across visual and digital touchpoints, tailored to a premium lifestyle and fashion demographic.
- Curated high-concept storytelling and cohesive visual aesthetics to showcase clothing collections and build a loyal community.
- Collaborated with influencers and content creators to amplify brand reach and optimize content for trend-led platform algorithms.
- Increased brand loyalty and engagement by analyzing audience sentiment and adjusting product positioning to align with modern fashion trends.

Rayyan and Dad Autos
Social Media Manager

August 2024 - February 2025

Transformed Rayyan and Dad Autos' digital showroom by curating transparent, high-value content that built trust with prospective car buyers; crafted detailed virtual walk-throughs, managed active community interactions, and designed engaging promotional visuals, streamlining the remote buying experience for both foreign and Nigerian-used vehicles and significantly shortening the lead-to-sale conversion cycle.

- Developed and executed social media strategies focused on building transparency and trust for a diverse automobile dealership.
- Optimized community management on platforms like Instagram and Facebook to facilitate instant communication between the sales team and buyers.
- Increased customer inquiries and conversion rates by creating relatable, informative posts that aligned with buyer pain points and desires.
