PROFILE

Focused and disciplined litigation lawyer with over five years of experience in active legal practice in both the Eastern and Western commercial hubs of Nigeria. Adept in research and drafting of legal processes, and always ready to acquire new knowledge and adapt to changing circumstances. A communication specialist with the ability to establish and maintain relationships between the firm and its stakeholders, including employees and other partners, via written or vocal correspondences. Adept at carrying out activities at management's or other stakeholders' request while collaborating with counsel in chambers. Knowledgeable and experienced in various subject matter areas of law, which best promotes overall accuracy in handling intricate briefs. Committed to the Nigerian Bar Association and passionate about working to further enhance the jurisprudence of the law in activism and advocacy.

Depot Services (ARPDS). Provided strategic legal oversight on the drafting and structuring of the legal and commercial components of the bid. Additionally, reviewed and advised the client on the Memorandum of Agreement (MOA) with a joint partner in the project, ensuring compliance with relevant corporate and administrative laws applicable to upstream oil & gas corporations.

- Spearheaded the legal and financial structuring of tender documentation for multiple consultancy mandates under the Federal Airports Authority of Nigeria's RfP, including PPP advisory, aviation policy, and property governance. Ensured full compliance with governance frameworks, public procurement regulations and delivered strategic legal input on contractual frameworks and risk mitigation.
- Led the legal compliance workstream in preparing the (VfM) Report for Brass Fertilizer Petrochemical Company Ltd (BFPCCL), collaborating directly with Partners to assess regulatory alignment, contractual integrity, and governance benchmarks in accordance with Nigerian financial law and industry standards.
- Negotiated and finalized a $5M Operations & Maintenance agreement for a petroleum servicing contract, applying expertise in contract negotiation and legal risk assessment to secure favourable terms and enhance the client's market positioning.
- Participated in the Operator's Business Case for a Concession between Adamawa State Government and multiple private institutions, focusing on setting up and implementing renewable energy asset warehousing programs, thereby supporting advancements in renewable energy initiatives and attracting new investments.

Associate Counsel | Commercial Law Firm

Accendolaw LP, Lagos, April 2021 – April 2024

Notable duties/tasks carried out during my employment (INCLUDING PUBLICATIONS):

- Participated in the preparation of court processes used in the arrest and detention of a foreign vessel—"the Bull Ray"—at the Federal High Court, on behalf of the Firm's client whose claim against the Respondents' owners' of the vessel was for the sum of about ₦63M withheld by the Respondents' based on a Time-Charter Party Agreement between the parties; and further co-authored an article on beneficial ownership of vessels in ship arrest proceedings titled "Vessel Ownership in Nigeria: Lessons learnt from *Caracal v The Vessel Bull Ray" published in the Journal of International Maritime Law, Vol 28(3) May 2022.
- Orchestrated multi-party litigation against twelve financial institutions, recovering nearly ₦100M for the client through strategic advocacy and legal process management. Applied financial services regulation and dispute resolution expertise to navigate complex liability issues in digital banking infrastructure. And also co-authored an article titled "Testing the boundaries of Legal Liability in the usage of Artificial Intelligence: a domestic and international approach; and debate on 'Personhood' for AI and Robots by EU et al." This article addressed critical issues that emerged from prosecuting the aforementioned case, providing valuable insights into the intersection of technology and law; finally, served as a research assistant for the article "Artificial Intelligence in Nigeria's Financial Sector: Lessons Learnt from System 'Bug' in Interswitch v Uba Plc," which was published in the Journal of Communication and Technology Law Report. This role involved synthesizing information and contributing to discussions on the implications of AI in the financial sector.
- Acted as counsel at the Federal High Court, representing an importation company against a shipping agency; managed the case focused on the agency's negligence, specifically their failure to notify our client with adequate notice, helping to highlight the key issues in the litigation; developed claims for both general and specific damages, including penalties for demurrage and storage charges, which aimed to recover costs incurred by our client due to the agency's actions; personally handled the trial proceedings, ensuring effective presentation of our case and maintaining clarity on the legal arguments; participated in the preparation of the written address, which contributed to a well-structured argument that supported our client's claims and enhanced the overall case strategy.

- Acted as the defence attorney for the firm's client at the High Court of Lagos State in an interpleader summons against the judgment-debtor's sister company who attempted to circumvent the attachment of moveable chattels found at the judgment-debtor's business premises: however, the judgment of the trial court was in our client's favor.
- Assisted the firm in defending a client company, in a dispute at the National Industrial Court of Nigeria, for declining to exercise its discretion in favor of a former employee seeking severance benefits and other emoluments under the company's staff employment handbook. Lessons learnt from the conduct of the case was reproduced in a journal article titled "Extending the Frontiers of the Industrial Employment Relationship: A Case Study of Donald Nosiri v Royal Exchange Plc & Anor." [details of publication N/L].
- Commenced and completed Probate applications on behalf of two major Clients; and followed up with the financial institutions where the pecuniary assets of the deceased were domiciled.
- Rendered advice to clients who wished to transcend their business scope into cyberspace; and co-authored in the publication of the article titled "The Operation of Nigerian Copyright Laws in Cyberspace" published in Journal of Communication and Technology Law Report by Sweet and Maxwell, Issue 7, 2023.
- Acted as a research assistant in the publication of several notable articles, including (i) "A Critique of Intellectual Property Rights in the Music Industry", published in the Nigerian Bar Journal (2023); (ii) "A Critique of the Nigerian Proceeds of Crime (Recovery & Management) Act 2022", published in Amicus Curiae (School of Advanced Studies, University of London) Series 2, Vol 4, No 2, 461-475 (2023); (iii) "Advancing Nigerian Trademark Laws in Cyberspace: A Case Study of BI Branded Apparel Ltd v Incus Global Concerns Ltd", published in Computer & Telecommunications Law Review 2022 Vol. 28 Issue 3, Thomas Reuters & Contributors (Sweet and Maxwell); (iv) "Extending the Frontiers of Nigerian Electoral Laws in Cyberspace: A Case Study of Atiku Abubakar v Independent National Electoral Commission", published in Computer & Telecommunications Law Review 2022 Vol. 28 Issue 6, Thomas Reuters & Contributors (Sweet and Maxwell); "Advancing Electronic Transaction Enactment in Nigeria: A Case Study of Sevi Ltd v Sterling Bank Plc", published in Computer & Telecommunications Law Review 2021 Vol. 27 Issue 8, Thomas Reuters & Contributors (Sweet and Maxwell).

State Counsel | Ministry of Justice

Office of the Attorney General, Enugu State, February 2020 – April 2021

Notable duties carried out during my service:

- Actively participated in the prosecution of several defendants in criminal charges from plea to judgment stages, and obtained two judgments.
- Delivered official documents and other dossiers to designated government institutions.

- Accompanied senior state counsel on official programs (such as Valedictory Court Sessions, Department of Public Prosecution meetings etc.)
- Reviewed and assessed evidence to determine the viability of prosecuting criminal cases, in order to prepare and file charges and other legal documents necessary for prosecution.
- Developed case strategies, including witness preparation, evidence presentation, and legal arguments; and further represented the Enugu State in several superior courts of record during arraignments, pre-trial motions, trials, sentencing, and appeals.
- Assisted the senior state counsel in meetings with the victim and accused person(s) to negotiate plea agreements and settlements.
- For want of a library, state counsel and I made use of the 'Law Pavilion office suite', which is a digital library for lawyers, and even used by Judges and Magistrates for comprehensive legal research, to support case preparation and prosecution.
- I worked closely with law enforcement agencies, especially the Police, to gather evidence and build strong cases; and also, under the supervision of senior state counsel, provided legal advice and guidance to police officers and investigators during criminal investigations.
- I had the opportunity to liaise with victims and witnesses to explain legal procedures and provide support throughout the prosecution process, whilst ensuring that the rights and interests of victims were protected during criminal proceedings.
- I assisted in maintaining accurate records of case files, legal documents, and court proceedings, and prepared reports and summaries of case outcomes for internal review and reporting purposes.

PRO-BONO SERVICE(S)

Legal Adviser 2 | Non-Governmental Organization Stella Helpline for Abused & Traumatized Women & Children of Nigeria (SHATWON), Enugu, November 2019 – Present

Responsibilities as a legal adviser 2 for the Non-Government Organization (NGO):

The SHATWON organization is an impartial, neutral and independent organization with the exclusive humanitarian good-will objective to cater for the lives and dignity of victims, especially impoverished women and children, of abusive relationships and other forms of domestic violence in households and provide them with assistance, such as clothing, machines (sewing machines), educational scholarships, and others toward women and children empowerment.

A few of the responsibilities I handled in my role as 'legal adviser 2' include the following:
